

Reel Contents

MN#

95-2456 : Leland, Henry Martyn / Abraham Lincoln

95-2457 : Hayden, Horace Edwin / A refutation of the charges against the Confederate States of America of having authorized the use of explosive and poisoned musket and rifle balls during the late Civil War of 1861-65

95-2458 : Duyckinck, Evert A. (Evert Augustus) / Nationale Geschichte des Krieges für die Union

Microfilmed For University of Illinois Library
at Urbana-Champaign

July 1996

Microfilmed By
Preservation Resources
Bethlehem, PA 18017

Camera Operators
Cheryl Ancell
Ilka Pagan
Donna Callaby

MICROFILMED 1996

University of Illinois Library at Urbana-Champaign

1408 West Gregory Drive
Urbana, Illinois 61801

Humanities Preservation Project

Funded in part by the
NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

Reproductions may not be made without permission from the University of Illinois Library at Urbana-Champaign

COPYRIGHT

The copyright law of the United States - Title 17, United States Code - concerns the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copy order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

University of Illinois Library at Urbana-Champaign

MASTER NEGATIVE
STORAGE NUMBER
95-2456

AUTHOR: Leland, Henry
Martyn
TITLE: Abraham Lincoln
PLACE: Chicago
DATE: 1932

UIUC Master Negative 95-2456

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
University Library
Urbana, Illinois 61801

HUMANITIES PRESERVATION PROJECT

CATALOG RECORD TARGET

Leland, Henry Martyn, 1843-1932.

Abraham Lincoln : the important collection of the late Henry M. Leland : unrestricted public auction, Thursday evening, June 2, 1932 : public exhibition, room 919, Saturday, May 28th to June 2nd ...

Henry M. Leland collection

Chicago : Chicago Book & Art Auctions, [1932]

32 p. : facsim., ill., port. ; 23 cm.

At head of title: Sale 24, June 2, 1932.

Catalog of collection of autograph letters and other documents, and personal relics, prints, etc.

Lincoln, Abraham, 1809-1865--Collectibles.

Lincoln, Abraham, 1809-1865--Archives Catalogs.

Chicago Book & Art Auctions, Inc.

MICROFILMED BY
Preservation Resources
Bethlehem, PA

on behalf of
The Humanities Preservation Project
at the University Library of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Film size: 35mm microfilm
Image Placement: IIA
Reduction Ratio: 12:1
Date Filming Began: 7-25-96

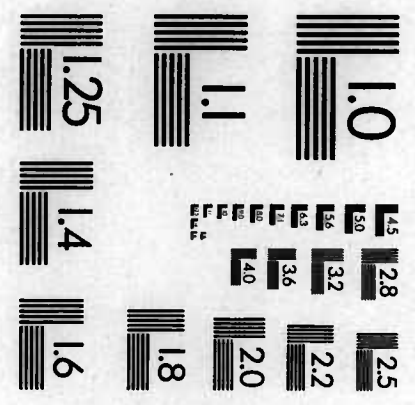

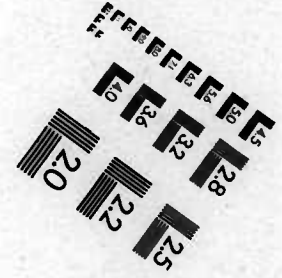

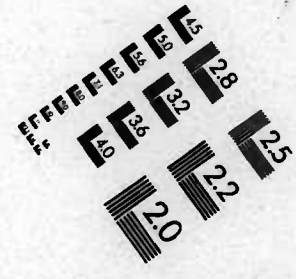

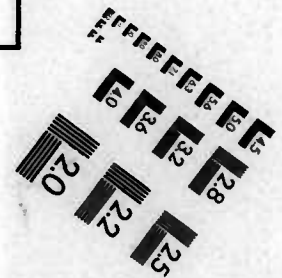

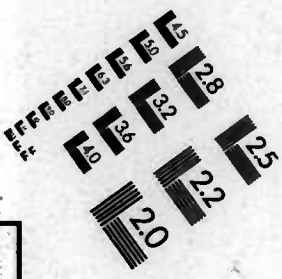

Camera Operators:

CHERYL A.

ABCEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz1234567890

1.5 mm

PM-MGP
METRIC GENERAL PURPOSE TARGET
PHOTOGRAPHIC

ABCEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz1234567890

ABCEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz1234567890

ABCEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz
1234567890

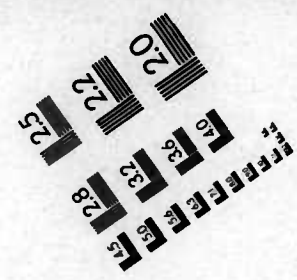

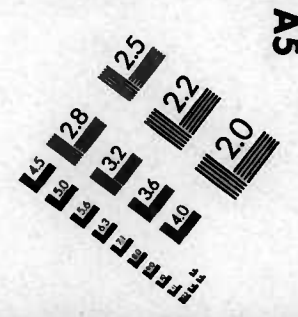

ABCEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz
1234567890

1.0 mm

1.5 mm

2.0 mm

2.5 mm

PRECISIONSM RESOLUTION TARGETS

A&P International
2715 Upper Afton Road, St. Paul, MN 55119-4760
612/738-9329 FAX 612/738-1496

ABCEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz
1234567890

4.5 mm

A3

A4

A5

200 mm

150 mm

100 mm

073.7L63
A2L53a
cop. 2

Leland, H. M.

— o —

Abraham Lincoln

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Rare Autograph Letters, Documents, Personal
Relics, Prints, etc.

The collection of the late

HENRY M. LELAND

Detroit, Michigan

LIBRARY
OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC SALE

June 2nd at 8 P. M.

CHICAGO BOOK & ART AUCTIONS, INC.

410 South Michigan Avenue

CHICAGO

Henry M. Leland Collection

Foreword

These memorials of Abraham Lincoln have bound up within them the strivings by which he grew to the stature of greatness. Through the years that have intervened since his passing the memories which they hold have been augmented by the thoughts and acts to which they have inspired those who have reverently possessed them.

Henry M. Leland reached his twenty-first birthday in 1864. In that year he cast his first presidential vote for Abraham Lincoln. The esteem which he thereby expressed for the man and his principles grew with the years, and was happily rewarded in 1916 when he was able to acquire the relics and documents described in the following pages.

Always a vital force in his life, the Lincoln traditions became a still more compelling influence to Mr. Leland from that time forward. In the following year, a time of international crisis, he earnestly dedicated the Lincoln Motor Company to the service of this nation for which the martyred president gave "that last full measure of devotion." In this same reverent spirit do we now offer these memorials to those who revere the memory of Abraham Lincoln.

—Wilfred C. Leland, Jr.

SALE 24, JUNE 2, 1932

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The important collection of the late

HENRY M. LELAND

Detroit, Michigan

UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC AUCTION
THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1932

PUBLIC EXHIBITION

Room 919

Saturday, May 28th to June 2nd

9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

(Except Sunday and Memorial Day)

CHICAGO BOOK & ART AUCTIONS, INC.

410 South Michigan Avenue

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

ROOM 922, FINE ARTS BUILDING

(SALE 24) JUNE 2, 1932

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The important collection of the late

HENRY M. LELAND,

Detroit, Michigan

UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC AUCTION
THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1932

PUBLIC EXHIBITION

Room 919

Saturday, May 28th to June 2nd

9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

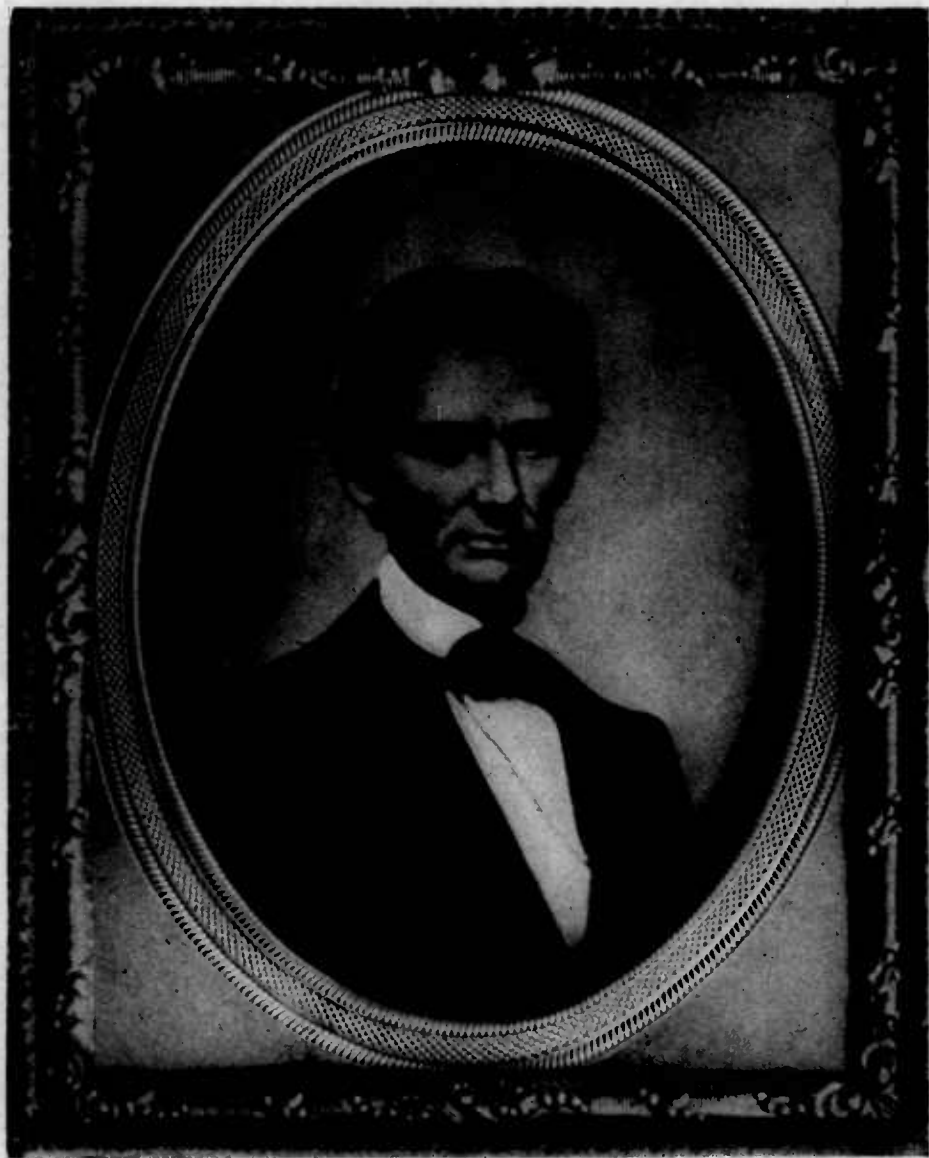

(Except Sunday and Memorial Day)

CHICAGO BOOK & ART AUCTIONS, INC.

410 South Michigan Avenue

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

ROOM 922, FINE ARTS BUILDING

The Cooper Union Ambrotype
[Lot Number 19]

973.7L63

A2L53a

cop. 2

ONE SESSION SALE

Tuesday Evening, June 2, 1932, at

8:00 P. M. Sharp

5
1932
6
1. ARNOLD, ISAAC NEWTON. Biographer and Intimate Friend of Abraham Lincoln's; Strong Abolitionist and Soldier in the Civil War. Autograph Letter Signed. To E. D. Morgan, War Governor of New York, urging the appointment of C. H. Machin of the Chicago Light Artillery to a Lieutenancy in the New York Volunteers, and giving details of his services and wounds. 2pp., 4to. Washington, April 28, 1862.

10
2. BACON, WILLIAM J. MEMORIAL OF WILLIAM KIRKLAND BACON, late Adj. of the 26th Regiment N. Y. S. Vols. Portrait. Utica, 1863. 12mo, cloth.

11
H. Inscribed on fly-leaf: "To His Excellency: President Linclon. This memorial of a young soldier who gave his life for our dear country in the day of her calamity, is presented by his Father, Wm. J. Bacon, Utica, N. Y., June 1863."

Lincoln's Assassin

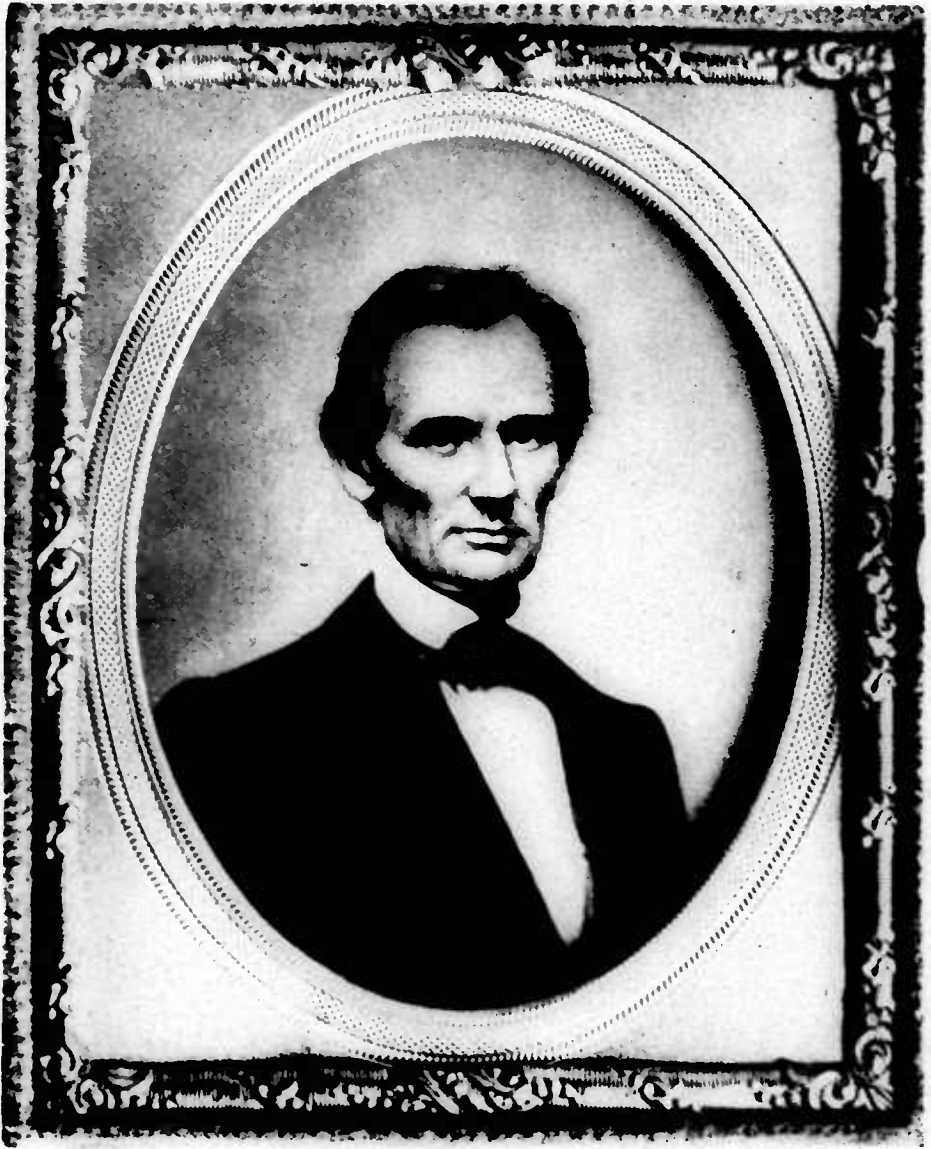

12
1935
FEB 2
3. BOOTH, JOHN WILKES. Autograph Letter Signed, Initials. 2pp., 12mo. St. Charles Theatre, New Orleans, April 4th. To a young woman.

"My dear Miss. I received yours yesterday, but was kept by business from answering till now. I have come to the conclusion that a non-compliance with your request would be a Crime, especially if my not refusing will afford you the pleasure you mention. I therefore enclose, with my best wishes for your future a picture of my humble self. I start next Saturday for Boston. With all respects I remain yours to Command."

4. BOOTH, JOHN WILKES. CARTE DE VISITE PHOTOGRAPH, SIGNED: "Yours Resp'tly J. Wilkes Booth."
Doubtless the photograph mentioned in the preceding letter.

5. BOOTH, EDWIN. Actor. Autograph Letter Signed. "Edwin." 1p., 8vo, Xmas (1865). (To Colonel Adam Badeau) Washington. Wishing him a happy Christmas.

6. CONFEDERATE. A collection of about 400 War Telegrams sent to Gen. Gideon J. Pillow, Commander of the Confederate Forces in Tennessee, by numerous Officers and Officials including Leonidas Polk, Gen. A. L. Johnston, Isham G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee, John J. Pettus, Stephen Mallory, the Confederate Secretary of the Navy, Preston Smith, Secretary of War, L. P. Walker, J. H. Hamersley, Gen. Hindman, and numerous Officers and State Officials. A large number of these telegrams are from volunteers anxious to join General Pillow's Army in Tennessee; many of them show the great scarcity of Powder, Guns, Percussions Caps

The Cooper Union Ambrotype
[Lot Number 19]

ONE SESSION SALE

Tuesday Evening, June 2, 1932, at

8:00 P. M. Sharp

1. ARNOLD, ISAAC NEWTON. Biographer and Intimate Friend of Abraham Lincoln's. Strong Abolitionist and Soldier in the Civil War. Autograph Letter Signed. To E. D. Morgan, War Governor of New York, urging the appointment of C. H. Machin of the Chicago Light Artillery to a Lieutenantcy in the New York Volunteers, and giving details of his services and wounds. 2pp., 4to. Washington, April 28, 1862.

2. BACON, WILLIAM J. MEMORIAL OF WILLIAM KIRKLAND BACON, late Adj. of the 26th Regiment N. Y. S. Vols. Portrait. Utica, 1863. 12mo, cloth.

Inscribed on fly-leaf: "To His Excellency: President Lincoln. This memorial of a young soldier who gave his life for our dear country in the day of her calamity, is presented by his Father, Wm. J. Bacon, Utica, N. Y., June 1863."

Lincoln's Assassin

3. BOOTH, JOHN WILKES. Autograph Letter Signed, Initials. 2pp., 12mo. St. Charles Theatre, New Orleans, April 4th. To a young woman.

"My dear Miss. I received yours yesterday, but was kept by business from answering till now. I have come to the conclusion that a non-compliance with your request would be a Crime, especially if my not refusing will afford you the pleasure you mention. I therefore enclose, with my best wishes for your future a picture of my humble self. I start next Saturday for Boston. With all respects I remain yours to Command."

4. BOOTH, JOHN WILKES. CARTE DE VISITE PHOTOGRAPH, SIGNED: "Yours Resp'tly J. Wilkes Booth."

Doubtless the photograph mentioned in the preceding letter.

5. BOOTH, EDWIN. Actor. Autograph Letter Signed. "Edwin." 1p., 8vo, Xmas (1865). (To Colonel Adam Badeau) Washington. Wishing him a happy Christmas.

6. CONFEDERATE. A collection of about 400 War Telegrams sent to Gen. Gideon J. Pillow, Commander of the Confederate Forces in Tennessee, by numerous Officers and Officials including Leonidas Polk, Gen. A. L. Johnston, Isham G. Harris, Governor of Tennessee, John J. Pettus, Stephen Mallory, the Confederate Secretary of the Navy, Preston Smith, Secretary of War, L. P. Walker, J. H. Hamersley, Gen. Hindman, and numerous Officers and State Officials. A large number of these telegrams are from volunteers anxious to join General Pillow's Army in Tennessee; many of them show the great scarcity of Powder, Guns, Percussions Caps and other Supplies needed by the Confederates; whilst others relate to Transport of Troops, Statements of Spies, Rumors regarding the arrest of Mason and Slidell, Orders from Gen. Polk, Reports of Operations, near Corinth, etc., etc. Most of the telegrams are dated from Memphis, Jackson, Columbus, Brownsville, Holly Springs, Bowling Green and Grand Junction, June-Nov. 1861.

An extremely interesting Civil War Collection.

7. LINCOLN'S COPY. THE GOD OF OUR FATHERS. An Historical Sermon preached in the Coates Street Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, on Fast Day. Jan. 4, 1861. By GEORGE DUFFIELD, Pastor. With Notes and Appendix. Philadelphia, 1861. 8vo, brown morocco, gilt edges.

On fly-leaf the Pastor has written "PRESIDENT LINCOLN FROM THE AUTHOR." He commences the preface by saying that the phrase "National Sins" used by Lincoln in his Proclamation had suggested the Sermon to him. And in criticising the text of the Proclamation at length he says (page 36) "How others may have felt on reading this Proclamation, we do not know, but for ourselves we must confess, that for days together we were ashamed to look an American in the Face. If the object of the Proclamation was to humiliate us, it has certainly had that effect, though in a different way from what was originally intended by it." etc.

Lincoln Goes to Ford's Theatre

8. FORD, JOHN THOMSON. Manager of Ford's Theatre. Autograph Letter Signed. 2pp., 8vo. Baltimore, December 20, 1863. RARE AUTOGRAPH. On paper showing cuts of his Washington and Baltimore Theatres. To "My Dear Wright," telling of his theatrical ventures, mentioning Forrest, Davenport, Wallack, Hackett, and others.

In part it reads: "Hackett is doing, or rather has just finished a great engagement reaching $883—on one night. The President came on three different nights. I have it comparatively all my own way" etc.

9. GILDER, RICHARD WATSON. American poet. Autograph Poem, "ON THE LIFE-MASK OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN." 4 stanzas written on a folio sheet of vellum. Signed in full.

*"This Bronze doth keep the very form and mold
Of our Great Martyr's Face, Yes this is he:
That Brow all wisdom, all benignity;
That human, humorous mouth; those cheeks that hold
Like some fresh Landscape all the Summer's Gold." etc., etc*

Lots 10 to 19 Inclusive Are from the Family of Rev. Phineas D. Gurley, Lincoln's Pastor

10. GURLEY, REVEREND PHINEAS D. Pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church at Washington. Autograph Letter Signed 2pp., 4to. Washington, Oct. 31, 1862. To Abraham Lincoln.

Asking the appointment of Rev. Alexander W. Sproull, of Chester, Pa., as Hospital Chaplain.

Gold Headed Cane given by
Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln to Rev.
Phineas D. Gurley

[Lot Number 18]

and other Supplies needed by the Confederates; whilst others relate to Transport of Troops, Statements of Spies, Rumors regarding the arrest of Mason and Slidell, Orders from Gen. Polk, Reports of Operations, near Corinth, etc., etc. Most of the telegrams are dated from Memphis, Jackson, Columbus, Brownsville, Holly Springs, Bowling Green and Grand Junction, June-Nov. 1861.

An extremely interesting Civil War Collection.

7. LINCOLN'S COPY. THE GOD OF OUR FATHERS. An Historical Sermon preached in the Coates Street Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, on Fast Day, Jan. 4, 1861. By GEORGE DUFFIELD, Pastor. With Notes and Appendix. Philadelphia, 1861. 8vo, brown morocco, gilt edges.

On fly-leaf the Pastor has written "PRESIDENT LINCOLN FROM THE AUTHOR." He commences the preface by saying that the phrase "National Sins" used by Lincoln in his Proclamation had suggested the Sermon to him. And in criticising the text of the Proclamation at length he says (page 36) "How others may have felt on reading this Proclamation, we do not know, but for ourselves we must confess, that for days together we were ashamed to look an American in the Face. If the object of the Proclamation was to humiliate us, it has certainly had that effect, though in a different way from what was originally intended by it." etc.

Lincoln Goes to Ford's Theatre

8. FORD, JOHN THOMSON. Manager of Ford's Theatre. Autograph Letter Signed. 2pp., 8vo. Baltimore, December 20, 1863. RARE AUTOGRAPH. On paper showing cuts of his Washington and Baltimore Theatres. To "My Dear Wright," telling of his theatrical ventures, mentioning Forrest, Davenport, Wallack, Hackett, and others.

In part it reads: "Hackett is doing, or rather has just finished a great engagement reaching $883—on one night. The President came on three different nights. I have it comparatively all my own way" etc.

9. GILDER, RICHARD WATSON. American poet. Autograph Poem, "ON THE LIFE-MASK OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN." 4 stanzas written on a folio sheet of vellum. Signed in full.

*"This Bronze doth keep the very form and mold
Of our Great Martyr's Face, Yes this is he:
That Brow all wisdom, all benignity;
That human, humorous mouth; those cheeks that hold
Like some fresh Landscape all the Summer's Gold." etc., etc*

Lots 10 to 19 Inclusive Are from the Family of Rev. Phineas D. Gurley, Lincoln's Pastor

10. GURLEY, REVEREND PHINEAS D. Pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church at Washington. Autograph Letter Signed 2pp., 4to. Washington, Oct. 31, 1862. To Abraham Lincoln.

Asking the appointment of Rev. Alexander W. Sproull, of Chester, Pa., as Hospital Chaplain.

Gold Headed Cane given by
Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln to Rev.
Phineas D. Gurley

[Lot Number 18]

Dr. Gurley had attended President Lincoln's son when he died in the White House, was present at Lincoln's own Death Bed and preached his Funeral Sermon in the East Room of the Executive Mansion.

11. GURLEY, REVEREND PHINEAS D. Lincoln's Pastor, Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 4to. Washington, August 9, 1862. To His Excellency Abraham Lincoln, recommending the Rev. J. B. Meek as candidate for Chaplaincy in a hospital.

The author was chaplain of the United States Senate, was present at the death of Lincoln, and delivered his funeral sermon.

12. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A relic from his pastor's collection. ENGRAVED CARD. "The President requests the Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gurley's Company at Dinner on Friday, November 18th, at 6 o'clock. An early answer is requested." Size 4½ by 6½ inches. Washington, 1862.

13. LINCOLN'S CHURCH. PHOTOGRAPH of the New York Avenue Church where Lincoln attended during his Presidency.

Descriptive Autograph note of Mrs. Emma Gurley Adams, daughter of Lincoln's pastor, P. D. Gurley, on back.

14. PHOTOGRAPH. PHOTOGRAPH OF LINCOLN'S HAT, together with two newspaper clippings concerning it.

From the Gurley Collection of Lincoln Memorabilia.

15. NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS given to Rev. P. D. Gurley by President Lincoln.

Attested by affidavit of Mrs. Emma Gurley Adams, dated Feb. 5, 1914. Eleven pieces together.

16. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. PIECE OF SURGICAL BANDAGE used at Lincoln's Death Bed, given by one of his Physicians, Dr. W. M. Stone, to Rev. P. D. Gurley. With affidavit of Rev. Gurley's daughter attesting it, dated February 5, 1914.

17. LINCOLN RELIC. PIECE OF BLACK BROADCLOTH COAT worn by President Lincoln the night he was shot. Attested by affidavit of Mrs. Emma Gurley Adams date Feb. 5, 1914.

18. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. GOLD HEADED CANE presented by Abraham Lincoln and his wife to his pastor, Dr. P. D. Gurley, as a token of appreciation for Dr. Gurley's kindness at the time of the death of Lincoln's youngest son. The cane is 36½" long, is of polished ebony, and has a beautiful, chased gold head with birds and grape-vines in bas-relief, and bears the inscription: "Rev. Doct. P. D. Gurley, from Mr. and Mrs. A. Lincoln, 1862." Accompanying this relic is the following affidavit: Dated Jan. 9, 1914. "This cane was presented to my Father, Rev'd. P. D. Gurley, D. D., by President and Mrs. Abraham Lincoln in 1862, as a small token of gratitude, for sympathy and kindness shown them at the time their son, William Wallace Lincoln, died in the White House. EMMA H. GURLEY ADAMS."

A beautiful Lincoln relic and of particular significance because of the depth of feeling on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln which this gift to Dr. Gurley represents.

These cases attended to since Lincoln and Co. Comp
James M. Matteson vs: Fletcher (for pffs) 20.00
Is attending to case in Ohio Co.

Paid | William Torrence vs Galloway, for pffs 25.00
Is attending to case in Cir Co. Ohio Co.

Paid | Page vs Bogus for def. 10.00
Is attending to case in Howard Cir Co.

Arld | Magness vs Ritter (for pffs) 30.00
Is attending to case in Howard Cir Co.

Paid | People vs Chas Gafers (for def) 5.00
Is attending to case in Cir Co. Lewis Co.

People vs Leamon Elijah (for def) 5.00
Is attending to case and arrears in C.C. Co.

The Cooper Union Ambrotype

19. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. AMBROTYPE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. Oval $1\frac{1}{2}$ by 2 inches. In gold frame and chased ebony case.

This ambrotype has for its background some of the most cherished memories of the Lincoln family. The picture was taken February 27, 1860. On that day Lincoln delivered at Cooper Union the address which is said to have made him President of the United States. Mrs. Lincoln so loved this likeness that she claimed it for her own and kept it as her personal possession for many years. The President was so moved by the address of Dr. Gurley at the obsequies of his little son, William Wallace Lincoln, that he then asked Mrs. Lincoln to present the portrait, on her death, to Dr. Gurley's family. When the sale of the Gurley collection became known to Mrs. Emma B. Hodge of Chicago, she purchased the ambrotype and it was acquired from her by Wilfred C. Leland for his father's collection of Lincolniana.

Mr. Leland learned of this portrait through Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, and in speaking of it Dr. Hillis said; "There is no photograph in existence of Abraham Lincoln that has this spirited mood. You have seen him in the mood of discussion; you have seen him in the mood of a stern resolve; but here you find him in the mood wherein he has surrendered his will and life into the hands of God. It is the most poetic single portrait of Lincoln that was ever made."

20. LINCOLN INAUGURATION BALL. Large and Finely Engraved TICKET TO THE "UNION BALL." Large American Eagle and Stars at top. Underneath are engraved the names of the 250 Managers comprising every well-known Northern Statesman and politician of the period. The Invitation was sent to Mrs. Michael Newbold. 4to. Washington, March 4, 1861.

Exceedingly rare. Only a very few tickets of the ball are known to have survived.

Herndon on His Life of Lincoln

21. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p, 4to. Greencastle, Indiana, August 11, 1887. To "Friend Whitney" H. C. Whitney, Author of "Life on the Circuit with Lincoln." A most interesting letter on Whitney's lecture tour and on Herndon's Life of Lincoln.

"I and my friend Weik are writing Lincoln up as fast as we can. It's hot and dusty here—hot as—well—well."

22. HERNDON'S LINCOLN. "THE TRUE STORY OF A GREAT LIFE. The History and Personal Recollections of Abraham Lincoln, by William H. Herndon for twenty years his Friend and Law Partner, and Jesse William Weik. Portraits, facsimile autographs and other illustrations. Three volumes. Chicago, Bedford, Clark and Co., (1889). 12mo. Covers loose, Joline Bookplate in all three volumes.

The rare original edition which was promptly suppressed on account of its publishing many derogatory statements regarding the Parentage, Private Life and Matrimonial Affairs of the dead President.

23. LAMON, WARD H. Biographer of Lincoln and U. S. Marshal at Washington during the Civil War. Autograph Letter Signed. 2pp., 8vo., Washington, Sept. 10, 1861; To Governor E. D. Morgan of New York regarding a Military Friend. "Col. Wladimir Krzyz-

Bloomington Sept 23. 1854

Mr. Breyman, Esq

Dear Sir:

This is the last day of court here, and being about to leave, I have drawn on the I. C. R. R. Co., for $100, which the Mr. Sears here of Bank have negotiated for me - I have directed them to have the draft presented to you - Will you please see that it shall be honored?

The reason I have taken this liberty is, that since last fall, by your request I have declined all new business against the road, and out of which I suppose I could have realized several hundred dollars; have attended, both at De Witt and here to, great variety of little ^{for the best} business, most of which, however, remains imperfect, and have received nothing - I wish now to be charged with the same, to be taken into account on settlement -

Truly Yours &
A. Lincoln.

P.S. The draft is in favor of Mr. Parker, who is Cashier of the Bank.

nowski who is authorized to raise a Regiment in your State, apprehends some danger to his interests in consequence of a recent Order by the War Department. He expects to have his Regiment ready for marching Orders by September 20th. Mr. K. is a gentleman of standing in Washington and wields a potent influence in certain quarters here . . . ”

Scarce.

24. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. RECOLLECTIONS OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. 1847-1865. By Ward Hill Lamon. Edited by Dorothy Lamon Teillard. With 22 illustrations. Washington: Published by the Editor. 1911. 12mo. cloth.

Leaf of Lincoln's Arithmetic

25. LINCOLN'S SUM BOOK written when a school boy. Defective leaf containing examples in long division worked out by Lincoln, with autograph, "Abraham Lincoln's Book." Inlaid, 2 pp., folio, silked.

On one side of the leaf are four lines, reading as follows:

*"Abraham Lincoln is my name
And with my pen I wrote the same,
I wrote in both haste and speed
And left it here for fools to read."*

The heading of the leaf is dated 1824. Lincoln was then fifteen years of age, and the family was living in the backwoods. As is well known, he had very little schooling and did most of his studying at home and this leaf is from an exercise book in which he practiced his examples. While part of the leaf is missing this still remains one of the most interesting Lincoln souvenirs in existence. Few other such leaves are extant, but this is unique in that it contains the poem above quoted.

26. LINCOLN'S SUM BOOK. Another defective leaf containing examples in compound interest, worked out by Lincoln. Inlaid, 2pp., folio, silked. This leaf followed the foregoing item of long division and shows the studious disposition of the young Lincoln. These pages represent hard mental labor done at night after the daily toil, in 1822 to 1824. A more personal or characteristic souvenir of Lincoln would be difficult to procure.

27. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Document Signed. 1p., folio. Sangamon Circuit Court, September 21, 1837. (Folds neatly reinforced).

Bill in Chancery. Simeon Francis vs. the Estate of Edward Mitchell and John T. Stuart.

Lincoln's partnership with John T. Stuart was in force but five months at the time of this document and we find them on opposing sides in the case. It is evident therefore that this was a friendly suit for the legal settlement of a technical point. Another interesting feature about the document is the signature, which was started in the usual way. "Stuart and Lincoln," but the "Stu" is crossed out and the signature is written, simply "A. Lincoln for Compl'n't."

28. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Manuscript Signed twice, "Stuart & Lincoln," and once "A. Lincoln." 3pp., folio. Nov. 4, 1839.

Legal Document. Bill of Complaint in Neff, Wanton & Co. vs. Josiah Francis A most interesting and early Lincoln autograph document written in his 30th year and exactly 21 years before he was elected President.

Springfield, Sept 14. 1856

Wm. O'Connor.

Marquette Iowa.

Dear Sir

Yours, inviting me to attend a mass meeting on the 23rd Inst is received. It would be very pleasant to strike Kansas with the Thermopylae of Iowa, who have lost the war so splendidly, in the grand charge which we hope will be won in a most glorious victory - All thanks, all honor to Iowa!!

But Iowa is out of all danger, and it is no time for us, when the battle still rages, to pay holiday visits to Iowa - I am sure you will excuse me for remaining in Illinois, where much hard work is still to be done -

Yours very truly
A. Lincoln

29. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Manuscript. 2pp., folio. February 28, 1842.

Indenture between Francis Webster and William Buter, both of Sagamon County, transferring land in Springfield.

Lincoln drew up the document and Webster signed it.

30. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph document. 1p., 4to. June 17, 1843. Motion in the Case of Gould et al. vs. Robert Allen. A splendid document for framing.

31. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Document. 1p., folio, not dated. The entire document of 16 inches is in the hand of Lincoln with the exception of the signature of B. S. Edwards which appears at the end, and once in the body of the text. Apparently a very early holograph document.

Congressman Abraham Lincoln

32. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Document Signed while member of Congress. 1p., 4to.

Subscription list for printed copies of the Speech of John I. Slingerland on International Improvements, The War, etc.

Lincoln signed for 100 copies. Signed also by 15 other Congressmen.

33. LINCOLN AND HERNDON'S FEE BOOK for 1847, showing 127 entries in the autograph of William H. Herndon. Also in the back of the book are over 50 entries, headed "These cases attended to since Lincoln went to Congress." 4to, old half sheep. (Springfield 1847).

The fees entered range from $3.00 to $100 there being only one of $100 while most of them are for $5.00 and $10.00.

Lincoln—Attorney for I. C. R. R.

35. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Lincoln's greatest law case. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 4to, with address on back. Neatly framed in ebony between glass. Bloomington, Sep. 23, 1854. To Mason Brayman, then attorney of the Illinois Central Railroad, who had engaged Lincoln to conduct some important suits in which the Company was interested.

The Letter commences "This is the last day of Court here and being about to leave I have drawn on the Illinois Central Railroad Company, or rather on you on their Account, for $100 which the McClean County Banks have negotiated for me. I have directed them to have the draft presented to you. Will you please see that it shall be honored? The reason I have taken this Liberty is that since last fall, by your request, I have declined all new business against the road and out of which I suppose I could have realized several hundred dollars; have attended both at DelWitt and here to a great variety of little Business for the Company most of which however remains unfinished and have received nothing. I wish now to be charged this sum, to be taken into account on Settlement. Truly Yours, etc. A. LINCOLN. P.S. The Draft is in favor of Mr. Pardee, who is Cashier of the Bank."

Fine and extremely characteristic Lincoln Letter. In 1854 he was not only the Leader of the Whig Party in Illinois but also had attained a commanding position at the Bar. He was, however, always noted for the moderation of his fees and up to this time the fee charged in this case was his largest.

Private

Springfield, Ill. Oct. 15. 1860
S. Montgomery Bond, Esq

My dear Sir:

Yours of the 1st
has been at hand some days
You ask "In the event of your election to the Presidency, and of the election of a majority of Republicans to the next Congress would you continue radicalism to the extent of embittering the feelings of our Southern brethren?" I certainly am in no temper, and have no purpose, to embitter the feelings of the South; but whether I am inclined to such a course or not,
in fact, embitters their feelings, you can better judge by my published speeches, than by anything I would say in a short letter, if I were inclined now, as I am not, to define my position anew -

Yours truly, A. Lincoln

In December, 1855, Lincoln rendered a bill for services to the Company, reading: "The Illinois Central Railroad Company. Dec. (15th?) 1855, to A. Lincoln, Dr. To Professional Services in the Case of the Illinois Central Railroad Company against the County of McLean argued in the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois at December Term, 1855. $5000.00.

"We the undersigned Members of the Illinois Bar, understanding that the above entitled cause was twice argued in the Supreme Court, and that the judgment therein decided the question of the claim of counties and other minor municipal corporations to the property of said Railroad Company, and settled said question against said claim and in favor of said Railroad Company, are of opinion the sum above charged as a fee is not unreasonable. Grant Goodrich, N. B. Judd, Archibald Williams, N. H. Purple, O. H. Browning, R. S. Blackwell." This was the largest fee Lincoln ever received.

Lincoln Letter to Whitney

36. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 4to. Springfield, June 7, 1855. To Henry C. Whitney, Illinois politician and author of "Life on the Circuit with Lincoln."

"My Dear Sir: Your note containing Election news is received, and for which I thank you. It is all of no use however. Logan is worse beaten than any other man ever was since Elections were invented—beaten worse than 1,200 in this County. It is conceded on all hands that the prohibitory Law is also beaten. Yours truly, A. Lincoln."

Logan was a Douglas Democratic Congressman from Illinois, but on the first intimation of coming trouble with the South, he declared that "in the event of the election of Abraham Lincoln he would shoulder his musket to have him inaugurated." He was one of the ablest and most active of the Union Generals throughout the war.

Rare Legal Manuscript

37. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Manuscript. 1p., folio. April 25, 1855.

An unusually interesting legal document, not from a court file but from his own legal papers. Such documents are very rare indeed.

Summary of the case of Banking vs. Whonall.

Lincoln on the Fremont Campaign

38. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 4to., Stained. Springfield, September 14, 1856. To Henry O'Connor, of Muscatine, Iowa.

The contest was very close in the campaign of 1865 in Illinois, and Lincoln was one of the most active workers for the newly formed Republican party. He writes: "It would be very pleasant to strike hands with the Fremonters of Iowa, who have led the van so splendidly, in the grand charge which we hope and believe will end in a most glorious victory. All thanks, all honor to Iowa! But Iowa is out of all danger, and it is no time for us, when the battle still rages, to pay holiday visits to Iowa. I am sure you will excuse me for remaining in Illinois, where much hard work is still to be done. Yours very truly, A. Lincoln."

39. COMPILED LAWS of the State of Michigan. Compiled by Thomas M. Cooley. Vol. 1. Lansing, 1857. Thick 8vo, original sheep. Said to be one of Lincoln's law books with inscription on fly leaf. "Lincoln & Herndon, Springfield, Ills." and the firm's initials "L. & H." on outside of cover.

A Remarkable Lincoln Campaign Letter

40. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 8vo. Springfield, Illinois, October 15, 1860. To L. Montgomery Bond, Esq. A superb letter on the vital question of the time.

"Yours of the 1st has been at hand some days. You ask, 'In the event of your election to the Presidency . . . would you countenance radicalism to the extent of embittering the feelings of our Southern brethern.' I certainly am in no temper, and have no purpose to embitter the feelings of the South; but whether I am . . . you can better judge by my published speeches than by anything I would say in a short letter, if I were inclined now, as I am not, to define my position anew."

Yours truly,

A. Lincoln.

Early Letter as President

41. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 8vo. Executive Mansion, April 30, 1861. To Secretary of Interior, Caleb Smith.

A most interesting and early executive letter, showing Lincoln's promptness in removing agents in the South who were likely to be inimical to the Republican administration.

It reads, "Send Commissions as follow, Register of Land Office at Santa Fe, N. M., Joel Houghton, in place of O. H. Perry Richardson, removed.

Indian Agent at Santa Fe, John Ward, in place of Silas Kendrick, removed.

Indian Agent, Ramon Luna, in place of John L. Russell, removed.

Indian Agent, Jose Antonio Manrinas, in place of Diego Archulett, removed.

If you and Mr. Dole approve the above, let the Commissions be sent."

42. CHAIR used by Abraham Lincoln and his family while in the White House, Washington, 1861-1865. Mahogany dining-room chair, with leather seat. A silver plate with Inscription: "President Abraham Lincoln, 1861-1865" has been fastened to the back.

Lincoln's Remarkable Brevity

43. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 8vo. Executive Mansion, May 16, 1862. To Hon. V. B. Horton.

"My dear Sir: Herewith is a copy of your letter, with a copy of my endorsement upon it—You perceive I did exactly what you requested—Neither more nor less. Yours truly, A. Lincoln.

Also copy Horton's letter requesting Lincoln to authorize the Secretary of War to appoint Capt. R. F. Hunter to active duty.

Together, 2 pieces.

Troops Sent to Quell Draft Riots

44. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 8vo. Executive Mansion, Wash., July 29, 1863. To the Secretary of War, E. M. Stanton.

"I understand the Gov. of New Hampshire is anxious in regard to trouble about the draft, and desires that the 5th N. H. should be sent home on that draft account. The regiment is now here going down the Potomac, somewhere, and contains, as I learn, only 115 men.

Please consider the matter with the General in Chief.

Yours truly,

A. Lincoln."

The 5th N. H. volunteers were on their way to Lookout Point, Md. when they were stopped by the Secretary of War and sent to Concord, N. H. where they remained for three months.

45. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Document Signed. 1p., 4to. August 31, 1863. To General Henry Halleck.

"It is not improbable that retaliation for the recent great outrage at Lawrence, in Kansas, may extend to indiscriminate slaughter on the Missouri border, unless averted by very judicious action. I shall be obliged if the Gen.-in-Chief can make any suggestion to Gen. Schofield on the subject. A. Lincoln."

A most interesting Civil War historical document. Quantrell with 300 of his guerillas, raided the independent settlement of Lawrence, 40 miles in the interior of Kansas, killed 200 of its inhabitants, committed horrible atrocities and finally burnt up almost the entire town.

Rare Congressional Document

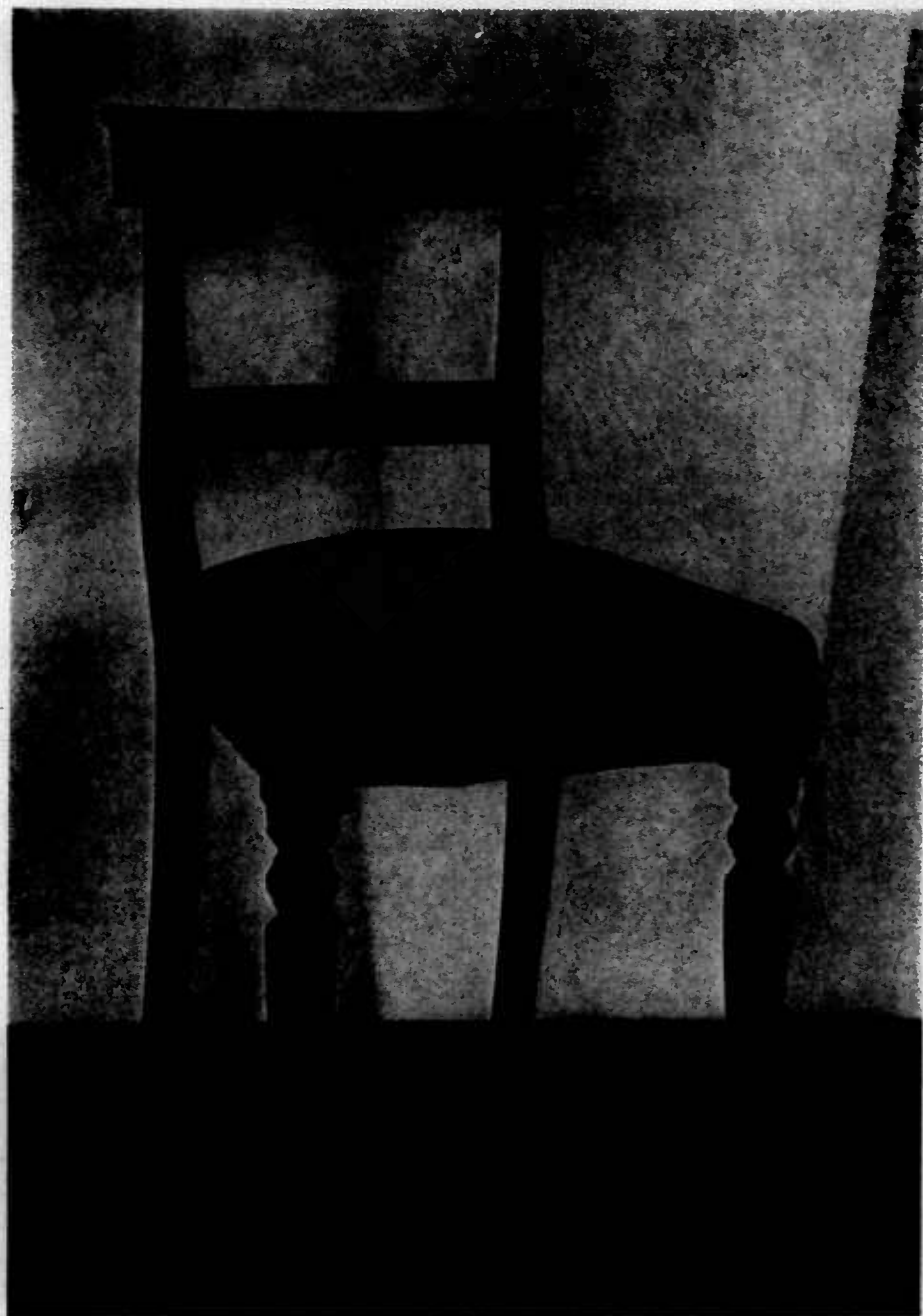

46. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. 13TH AMENDMENT signed by the Members of Congress. 38th Congress of the United States. A Resolution; Submitting to the Legislatures of the several States a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States. Article XIII. Section I. Neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction. Signed, "Schuyler Colfax," Speaker of the House of Representatives; "H. Hamlin," Vice-President of the Senate; "Edward McPherson," Clerk of the House of Representatives; all except five of the Senators who voted for the amendment; and all except five of the Representatives. Written on vellum, 15½x21 inches to folio size. Washington 1865.

A duplicate of the original amendment, which was signed by the President, Vice-President, Speaker, and Members of Congress. The Letters previously sold with a similar document from the Lambert Library declared that only three duplicate copies of this amendment were made, by the chief engrossing clerk and his two assistants. The above, therefore, must be the second of these two copies to appear at auction.

In the list of Senators are found the autographs of S. C. Pomeroy of Kansas, John C. TenEyck of New Jersey, E. D. Morgan and Ira Horris of New York, Charles Sumner of Massachusetts, John P. Hale of New Hampshire, and John Sherman of Ohio. Among the Representatives who voted for the amendment are the autographs of Isaac N. Arnold, Ill.; J. A. Garfield, Ohio; James E. English, Conn.; Schuyler Colfax, Ind.; Nathan F. Dixon, R. I.; A. McAllister, Pa.; J. G. Blaine, Me.; W. B. Washburn, Mass.; James T. Hale, Pa.; John A. Griswold, N. Y.; R. B. Van Valkenburgh, N. Y.; Jacob B. Blair, West Va.; etc., etc. Justin S. Morrill of Vermont and Anson Herrick of New York have signed twice.

47. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH Commission given to William T. Minor, Ex-Governor of Connecticut, appointing him Consul General of Havana. Signed by William H. Seward and Abraham Lincoln. Washington, February 14, 1865.

48. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Document Signed. 1p., folio. Washington, July 6, 1864. Signed also by William H. Seward. Commission of William T. Minor, Ex-Governor of Connecticut, as Consul General to Havana, Cuba.

Chair Used by Lincoln in the White House
[Lot Number 42]

The 5th N. H. volunteers were on their way to Lookout Point, Md. when they were stopped by the Secretary of War and sent to Concord, N. H. where they remained for three months.

45. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Document Signed. 1p., 4to. August 31, 1863. To General Henry Halleck.

"It is not improbable that retaliation for the recent great outrage at Lawrence, in Kansas, may extend to indiscriminate slaughter on the Missouri border, unless averted by very judicious action. I shall be obliged if the Gen.-in-Chief can make any suggestion to Gen. Schofield on the subject. A. Lincoln."

A most interesting Civil War historical document. Quantrell with 300 of his guerillas, raided the independent settlement of Lawrence, 40 miles in the interior of Kansas, killed 200 of its inhabitants, committed horrible atrocities and finally burnt up almost the entire town.

Rare Congressional Document

46. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. 13TH AMENDMENT signed by the Members of Congress. 38th Congress of the United States. A Resolution; Submitting to the Legislatures of the several States a proposition to amend the Constitution of the United States. Article XIII. Section I. Neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction. Signed, "Schuyler Colfax," Speaker of the House of Representatives; "H. Hamlin," Vice-President of the Senate; "Edward McPherson," Clerk of the House of Representatives; all except five of the Senators who voted for the amendment; and all except five of the Representatives. Written on vellum, 15½x21 inches to folio size. Washington 1865.

A duplicate of the original amendment, which was signed by the President, Vice-President, Speaker, and Members of Congress. The Letters previously sold with a similar document from the Lambert Library declared that only three duplicate copies of this amendment were made, by the chief engrossing clerk and his two assistants. The above, therefore, must be the second of these two copies to appear at auction.

In the list of Senators are found the autographs of S. C. Pomeroy of Kansas, John C. TenEyck of New Jersey, E. D. Morgan and Ira Harris of New York, Charles Sumner of Massachusetts, John P. Hale of New Hampshire, and John Sherman of Ohio. Among the Representatives who voted for the amendment are the autographs of Isaac N. Arnold, Ill.; J. A. Garfield, Ohio; James E. English, Conn.; Schuyler Colfax, Ind.; Nathan F. Dixon, R. I.; A. McAllister, Pa.; J. G. Blaine, Me.; W. B. Washburn, Mass.; James T. Hale, Pa.; John A. Griswold, N. Y.; R. B. Van Valkenburgh, N. Y.; Jacob B. Blair, West Va.; etc., etc. Justin S. Morrill of Vermont and Anson Herrick of New York have signed twice.

47. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH Commission given to William T. Minor, Ex-Governor of Connecticut, appointing him Consul General of Havana. Signed by William H. Seward and Abraham Lincoln. Washington, February 14, 1865.

48. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Document Signed. 1p., folio. Washington, July 6, 1864. Signed also by William H. Seward. Commission of William T. Minor, Ex-Governor of Connecticut, as Consul General to Havana, Cuba.

Chair Used by Lincoln in the White House
[Lot Number 42]

49. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Note Signed. 6 lines, on small slip, mounted. Dec. 13, 1864.

"I shall be glad if Capt. Goodenow can and will find a suitable position for this fine little boy."

On the other side is pasted the autograph of Chas. A. Harris.

50. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Signature in full. Very fine bold specimen. With attestation of A. W. Hitchins.

51. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Engraved form directing the Secretary of State to affix the Seal of the U. S. to a Warrant for the Pardon of Nelson Vickery, Signed "Abraham Lincoln." 4to, Washington, April 20, 1863.

52. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Autograph Note Signed on card, dated April 12, 1865.

"Let this man be released on taking the oath of December 8, 1863. A. Lincoln."
An interesting relic of the martyred President, disclosing one of his kindnesses to a prisoner, and one of the last pardons he signed, as the document was executed only two days prior to his assassination.

From the Dr. J. B. English collection, which was damaged by fire and water: this specimen shows a considerable blurring of the ink caused by its contact with water.

53. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. ENVELOPE ADDRESSED IN HIS HAND. "Hon. Leonard Meyers, House of Representatives."

54. [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM]. Copy of receipt given by Lincoln, reading "Received of D. M. Irwin two shares in the Estate of Thos. Paine, deceased, and one share of Doct. Allard making Twenty-four dollars; and to be applied as a part of a fee in the case of Hall vs. Irwin. Abram Lincoln." Springfield, Illinois, April 20, 1852.

55. [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM]. Autograph Petition "To His Excellency Abraham Lincoln, President of the U. S." asking for the appointment of John T. Nixon as Judge of the Court of Claims. Signed by C. H. Van Wyck, Roscoe Conkling, Alfred Ely, E. G. Spaulding R. B. Van Walkenbaugh, and 14 other Members of Congress. 4to. Washington, March 2, 1863.

Tad's Signature

56. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Three lines in the autograph of Lincoln on card which has been pasted on a sheet of paper, containing the extremely rare autograph signature of Lincoln's son Tad, "Thomas Lincoln." This is authenticated by inscription and signature of James W. Somers.

*The three lines read: "Tad wishes to see Gen. Meigs about getting cloth caps for the" * * * As stated by Carpenter in his "Six months in the White House," Tad was interested in a regimental company, and it may have been for this company that he wanted to secure the caps.*

Mrs. Lincoln Dabbles in Politics

57. LINCOLN, MARY TODD. Autograph Letter Signed. 3pp., 12mo. Executive Mansion, September 8, 1861. To Hon. Caleb Smith, Secretary of Interior.

"You will kindly excuse me for troubling you, but I much regret that Mr. Wood still pursues the attack, and tries to bring the charge of dishonesty upon Mr. Watts, who, in all his accounts with us, has been rigidly exact. Circumstances have proved that Mr. Wood is the last man who should bring a charge against any one, very especially against one who has been tried and always proved exact in his dealings. From remarks made by eye witnesses, in reference to Wood, he is either deranged or drinking. Many testify that he is acting very strangely, and as he is now known not to be the right man, he is trying to place a just man on a level with himself. Major French, who has long known Mr. Watts, will bear testimony to his good name. I heard much of Wood in N. York—and all agree that he is not a good man—He is bitterly disappointed that we read him aright and that he is displaced—and is capable of anything against those who tried to befriend him when he was so undeserving. I remain very sincerely your friend,

Mary Lincoln."

58. LINCOLN, MARY TODD. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 8vo. Executive Mansion, October 26, 1861. To Hon. Caleb B. Smith, Secretary of Interior, asking him to help Mr. Watts.

"Mr. Watts came to me this morning and asked me if I would address you a note. He says he will ever be deeply grateful, if you would TODAY, attend to some business, which he says he has spoken to you about—he expresses great friendship and gratitude to you, and if you will kindly release him from his present trouble, he promises, and I KNOW WILL KEEP HIS WORD, that you will not be embarrassed by him again & will be too happy to serve you henceforth in any way. Very sincerely your friend." Mary Lincoln.

Mrs. Lincoln Resents Sale of Relics

59. LINCOLN, MARY TODD. Autographed Letter Signed. 3pp., 8vo. Nov. 11, 1865. To Messrs. H. Leeds & Miner.

Interesting letter relating to the sale of her carriage and sharply criticising Mr. Williamson, tutor to her children at the White House, for the proposed sale of Lincoln's shawl and dressing gown which she had presented to him as relics of the President.

Clifton House, Chicago, Nov. 11, 1865.

"Your letter, relative to the carriage, has been received. Considering it was so much out of repair, I think it sold very well. Can you inform me, who was the purchaser? As to Mr. Williamson—for the last four years, he was tutor to my little boys. My husband and myself always regarded him as an upright, intelligent man—When leaving Washington, last May, I directed the servant woman to present him in my name (and in consideration, for the high reverence he (Mr. W.) always entertained for the President) a shawl and dressing gown. In doing so I felt he would cherish & always retain these relics of so great and good a man—My astonishment was very great I assure you, when you mentioned that these articles were for sale. Mr. W. certainly did not reflect when he proposed such a thing—I wish you would write to him and remonstrate upon so strange a proceeding. Hoping a gain to hear from you on the subject, I remain very respectfully,

Mrs. A. Lincoln."

"I am feeling very anxious, after again looking over your letter, about Mr. Williamson's proposed sale, of these little relics—it sounds very badly to me, who in my deep affliction am naturally very sensitive—If possible it MUST BE prevented.

M. L."

Lots 60 to 64 Concern Mrs. Lincoln's Pension

60. LINCOLN, MARY TODD. Long and interesting Autograph Letter Signed, initials. 10pp., 8vo, New York, February 5, 1882. In pencil from Mrs. Lincoln to Mr. Miner.

"I write to you on two subjects of the very greatest importance to me. I am growing very ill with Anxiety. Parties coming in tell me that no one knows accurately whether the Bill for $15000 passed the house with the $2000 a year Pension Bill. Without I see the handwriting of Mr. Springer announcing that the $15000 was passed with the Grand Pension Bill, may I not implore you the Hour you receive this letter tomorrow morning to write to Mr. Springer and have him write you at once the truth about it all. Of course (between ourselves) if it passed with the other bill, it would be kept from me, and if the $15000 passed the House of Representatives, they would try to prevent Arthur from signing it. I plead with you to write to Mr. Springer about it all and please enclose me his Reply without the least delay. The Great Anxiety about this business is rendering me very ill. Only a few lines from Springer will Satisfy me. Many persons are now doubting it greatly. Mrs. Mack has acted very ugly * * * Mrs. Dr. Miller returned from Wash. a few days since accompanied by Susan B. Anthony and other Suffrage Women who stopped at this house. Through gossiping Miller, I understand she had a conference with old Villian Davis. I feel assured Mrs. M. worked against my pension. Avoid any conversation with Dr. Miller save the mere civilities of Life. He tells everything. No woman in the Drawing Room or at Table but knows everything that is whispered to him." etc., etc.

This remarkable letter disclosing the full extent of the difficulties of Mrs. Lincoln in obtaining a living Pension, and the seeming opposition there was to it in some quarters, is signed as a postscript at the head of the first page, "With best Love to your Family I remain very truly Mrs. A. L."

61. (LINCOLN, MARY TODD). Interesting Autograph Letter Signed. 3pp., 8vo, (Springfield, December 9, 1881). From Mrs. Edwards the sister of Mrs. Lincoln, who had married a son of Ninian Edwards, Governor of Illinois, and who resided in Springfield.

She commences, "My dear Mary, I have not received a reply to my last two letters, but infer that you are not in writing mood, as is often my own case. Mr. Edwards wishes me to remind you that he had a long talk last Spring with our Representative in Congress, Mr. Springer, who promised him, that he would seize the first opportunity to have your pension increased. The application is usually presented by some one from the State where the person belongs. Mr. Springer has written to Mr. Edwards and says he is ready and anxious to serve you in this matter. He says that he believes the Country desires that every attention and Care that Money can procure should be furnished you out of the Nation Treasury. Mr. Edwards wrote him that he would move in the matter * * * Your affectionate Sister E. P. E."

At foot of third page Mrs. Lincoln has written in ink, "Please read this second page, only hope that Mr. S. (Springer) will prove faithful."

62. (LINCOLN, MARY TODD). Copy of a letter on Mrs. Lincoln's Pension written in the handwriting of Mrs. Rhoda E. Mack. 4pp. 365 Fifth Ave., New York City., Dec. 13, 1881. To Mrs. Admiral Dahlgren.

"My dear Madam, Our Mutual Friend, Mrs. Lincoln, is suffering with a Spinal difficulty, the result of a dangerous Fall. She is under treatment which might be successful if her means permitted her to have in her surroundings something more than the bare necessities of Life. It is almost impossible for her to walk a step. She is subject to fainting turns and really needs the constant attendance of a Maid, but the expenses of attending the Baths and daily Treatments are so heavy that she is obliged to depend for services on the good will of the servants in the Establishment in which she boards. Does it seem right, the Widow of our Martyred Lincoln should be in this position? Assuredly not and her friends here and in Washington ought to make an effort to have her pension raised to a sum sufficient to enable her to pass the Remainder of her days in as much comfort as her suffering condition will permit * * * Mrs. Lincoln thinks if you were to see Don Cameron, his influence would be of signal service to her." etc. etc.

63. LINCOLN, MARY TODD. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 4to. Chicago, April 6. To O. S. Halsted.

"I wrote you ten days since, enclosing you a note from Mr. Foster, in which he says you did not hand him, the Nevada Claim. As I sent it to you and you acknowledged its receipt—I shall hope you will send it to me, without delay. A friend in Cal. has the number, and wishes to see if he can do anything with it—I cannot understand why you have not returned it to me.

"I remain very truly"

Mrs. A. Lincoln

64. HARRIS, PHILIP. Autograph Letter Signed. 1p., 8vo. New York, 17. Dec. 1881. To Mrs. Rhoda E. Mack, on Mrs. Lincoln's pension.

"Your letter of the 15th instant received. Mr. Field says that he is doing all he can in the matter, and would suggest that Mr. Lincoln's friends should write on the subject to members of Congress whom they know and urge her claims upon their attentive consideration."

65. LINCOLN FAMILY MANUSCRIPT Account Book. Folio Mss. Account Book of some 200 pages, covering a period from 1789 to 1837. With Manuscript Index. Folio, old sheep.

Among the Lincolns with whom accounts are recorded are Luther, Jacob, Thomas, David, Johnathan, Nathaniel, James, Daniel, Stowel, Lester, John, Ralph, Elisha and Burr. Fine condition.

This book relates to the English branch of the family, resident at Windham, under both Lincoln and Linkon.

66. LINCOLN AND NEBRASKA. 1864. PETITION TO PRESIDENT LINCOLN signed by "Citizens of Nebraska Territory," asking for the removal from office of Hon. Wm. P. Kellogg, Chief Justice of Nebraska, who in addition to receiving pay as a Colonel in the U. S. service, was lobbying to influence the location of the eastern terminus of the Pacific R. R. at Omaha, for purposes of private speculations. 1p., folio. 1864.

Extremely interesting Nebraska document, signed by Stephen D. Bangs, David Leech and 33 other prominent citizens of the Territory. On the back is this endorsement: "Petition for the removal of Wm. P. Kellogg, Ch. Justice of Nebraska Terri. Filed in Atty. Gen'l's office, Feb. 8th, 1864." Addressed "To His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States."

67. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. Small piece (4 by 2 inches) of the cotton pillow slip on which Lincoln's head rested from the time of his removal from Ford's Theatre until his death. A few blood stains are still discernible on the cloth. The relic is attached to a letter from Thomas Proctor of Brooklyn, stating that he was present when Lincoln died and that he brought this away as a memento. 4to, glazed frame.

68. SMALL LEATHER HAND BAG, with pocket attachment on side, and brass lock and clasp. Card attached reads: "This hand bag was the original property of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln," when they 'packed up' to start for Washington, she gave it to Miss Langford in Springfield. I got it direct from Miss L."

From the John E. Burton Collection.

69. GOLD STUD. Four gold logs forming a square with the ends overlapping and a small white stone mounted in the center. The whole mounted on a screw stem. Said to have been presented to Lincoln. With authenticating note of John E. Burton signed initials.

From the John E. Burton Collection.

70. BEADED ORNAMENTAL FRINGE. Length, 14 inches. This fringe was suspended from a shelf in the Lincoln home in Springfield and was given by Mrs. Lincoln to Miss Langford, from whom it was acquired by Mr. Burton.

From the John E. Burton Collection.

71. BRASS THIMBLE, formerly belonging to Lincoln's mother. Accompanied by an affidavit, dated Nov. 8, 1911, of Anna Belle Fellows Rich, which reads "I, this day, disposed of a Thimble to Mrs. J. E. Burton which my Mother gave to me, which was given to her by John Hutchinson (of musical fame), who received it from Abraham Lincoln who presented it to him as a token of regard it being, he said, his own Mother's 'Nancy Hanks'"

From the John E. Burton Collection.

72. LINCOLN. A collection of 10 War Songs. Illustrations and fashion plates. Bound in one vol. 8vo. morocco (some margins strengthened) 1863-4.

With several interesting imitation Lincoln signatures.

73. LINCOLN MEMORIAL. ALBUM-IMMORTELLES. By Osborn H. Oldroyd, with Introduction by Matthew Simpson and a Sketch of the Patriot's Life by Isaac N. Arnold. Numerous Portraits and Illustrations. New York, 1882. 8vo. three-quarter green levant, gilt top, uncut.

Unique copy. With two very interesting autograph letters from the author. O. H. Oldroyd, detailing his plans for the publication of the book inserted and rare original prospectus of the work bound in.

74. RAYMOND, HENRY J. Historian of Lincoln's Administration, Autograph Letter Signed. 3pp., 8vo. New York, December 12, 1854. To George Clark, sending him private information about M. Thompson and advising him to appoint Junius T. Stagg as Quartermaster, with other business details.

75. SPEECHES, delivered in Congress during Lincoln's Administration, mostly in 1864. Comprising: Reconstruction: Liberty the Cornerstone, and Lincoln the Architect. By Isaac N. Arnold. 2 copies; Speech of Hon. James A. Garfield, on Treason in Congress; Secession and Reconstruction; Speech of Hon. Daniel W. Gooch, of Mass.; and others. 93 pamphlets in one volume. Washington, various dates. 8vo, half roan. An extensive collection of speeches made at this critical time by the foremost orators in Congress, and covering a variety of subjects. Many of them are very scarce.

From the John E. Burton Collection.

76. STRONG, J. D. THE NATION'S SORROW. A Discourse on the Death of Abraham Lincoln delivered in the Larkin Street Presbyterian Church, San Francisco. San Francisco 1865. 8vo, half morocco, printed wrappers bound in.

Rare. Presented to Charles H. Hart by the Author. With this letter inserted. "Yours of the 25th ult. inquiring about that poor, little sermon of mine received today. I have procured one from a friend who happened to have two copies, which I mail to you. My church published it and distributed it gratis to all applicants. The call for it was greater than anticipated and the Edition ran out in less than a week, so that there are no more to be had as far as I know. My other discourse in this same topic produced a week later was not published, although it would have been much more to my credit." etc. etc.

Whitney's Original Manuscript

77. WHITNEY, HENRY C. MANUSCRIPT, "LIFE OF LINCOLN." Original manuscript. AN EPITOME OF THE LIFE AND CHARACTER OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN. Embracing an Analysis of his character, Review of his Administration; and Critical Selections from his Writings and Speeches. Classified and illustrated by Henry C. Whitney, author of "Life on the Circuit with Lincoln." Very legibly written on 800 folio pages, with numerous corrections, additions and annotations in Whitney's handwriting. About 1890.

A fine and most interesting manuscript. Written by one of Lincoln's earliest and closest friends and the author of the well-known "Life on the Circuit with Lincoln." In this history, however, the political period of Lincoln's career is fully developed, together with his administrative acts as President throughout the Great Civil War, and the tragedy of his death.

78. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. LIFE ON THE CIRCUIT WITH LINCOLN. By Henry C. Whitney. Numerous Illustrations and portraits. Boston, 1892. 8vo, half green levant morocco, gilt tops. Extended by extra-illustration to four volumes.

Very handsome and unique set. Extra-illustrated by the insertion of over 300 portraits and illustrations; of which 60 are proofs on India or Japan paper. Among the India proofs are two different portraits by Charles B. Hall, proofs before letters, and signed by the artist, only 50 copies of each having been printed. Other proofs portray Gen. McClellan, W. T. Sherman, Thomas Carlyle, John Marshall, Denis Hanks, Black Hawk, John Brown, Robert Lincoln, John Nicolay, Judge David D. Davis, and many others closely connected with the President, together with about 40 interesting portraits of Lincoln himself.

79. LINCOLN. Patent Office Card showing that Patent 6469 was granted to Abraham Lincoln, Springfield, Ill., being an "Improvement in Method of Lifting Vessels over shoals." Patented May 22, 1849. Size 4¾ by 5½ inches. Washington, 1849. A complete account of Lincoln's very ingenious idea is to be found in the Patent Office report for 1849.

80. BROADSIDE. Brown, James Franklin. A poem. OUR COUNTRY. 1p., 4to. Scarce.
The last stanza reads:

*"We know that 'Lincoln' is the man,
Who will for truth and freedom stand,
And give this nation all their rights,
So may they cease their arms to fight."*

81. BROADSIDE. By His Excellency Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States. A Proclamation for a Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer. (Sept. 16, 1861.), also Gov. Andrew's Proclamation of same, for Massachusetts. 4pp., folio. Scarce.

82. BROADSIDE. Phunny Phellow. GREAT FIGHT FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP BETWEEN THE SOUTHERN FILIBUSTER AND THE WESTERN RAILSPLITTER. Large folio (a slight tear at the bottom has been repaired).

Very scarce. The greater portion of the broadside is taken up with caricatures of Lincoln and Davis, as Pugilists, with the White House and the Confederate Capitol behind the respective fighters. There is an amusing reply of Lincoln to H. . . C—G. . . y's query in connection with the fight.

83. BROADSIDE. JOHNNY'S PRAYER. Copied from a Soldier's Letter. 1p., 8vo. No place, no date.

"Our Father! who art in Washington. Uncle Abra'm by name. Thy Victory's won; Thy will be done, In the South, as in the North; Give us this day, our daily rations, of Crackers and Pork, and forgive our failures as we forgive our Quarter Masters, for their short rations; For thine is the power; the Soldier, and the Contraband; for the space of Three Years. Amen."
Very scarce.

84. BROADSIDE. THE PRESIDENT TO GENERAL McCLELLAN. Washington. April 9, 1862. 1p. 4to (9¾ by 7¾ inches). An open letter addressed to Major-General McClellan and ending: "I beg to assure you that I have never written or spoken to you in greater kindness of feeling than now, nor with a fuller purpose to sustain you so far as in my most anxious judgment I consistently can. But you must act."

Rare Emancipation Broadside

85. EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION. "By the President of the United States of America. A Proclamation." September 22, 1862. With printed signatures of Lincoln and Seward. Issued January 1, 1863. 1p., folio. Official document.

86. EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION. Official Printed Document. State Department Circular to the Diplomatic and Consular Officers of United States in Foreign Countries, September 22, 1862. 1 page with copy of proclamation on pages 3 and 4 having printed signatures of Lincoln and Seward. 4pp., folio.

87. BROADSIDE. Proclamation of John A. Andrew, Governor of Massachusetts appointing Nov. 26, as a Day of Public Thanksgiving throughout the State. Size 20 by 26 inches. Boston, October 1, 1863.

88. BROADSIDE. PRESIDENT LINCOLN AND GENERAL GRANT ON PEACE AND WAR. Interview with the President. Letter of General Grant. (12 by 9½ inches.) No place, (1864). Bound in one volume, 8vo, full morocco.

Scarce. Contains Bayard Taylor's poem "On the Chicago Surrender."

89. BROADSIDE. PRESIDENT LINCOLN AND GENERAL GRANT ON PEACE AND WAR. 1p., 4to.

Scarce. Contains interview with President by J. T. Mills; letter from General Grant, and Poem by Bayard Taylor "On the Chicago Platform."
Very scarce.

90. BROADSIDE. ABRAHAM LINCOLN. 1p. oblong. 4to. No place, no date. "If the Government contracted a Debt with a Certain Amount of Money in Circulation, and then contracted the Money Volume before the Debt was Paid, it is the Most Heinous Crime that a Government could Commit against a People."

91. BROADSIDE. "Who is responsible for the War? Who Accountable for its Horrors and Desolations? Extracts from the Speech by Alexander H. Stephens" denouncing secession. "Who Commenced the War?" With a list of "Remarkable Events" which occurred during the Presidency of Mr. Buchanan.
9¼ by 11½ inches. New York 1864.

92. NORWICH MORNING BULLETIN, for Saturday, April 15, 1865; the same for Sunday, April 16, 12 o'clock M. Each 1p., folio. Norwich, Conn. 1865. Extras giving the details of the assassination of Lincoln.

Together two pieces.

93. LINCOLN BROADSIDE. Broadside Proclamation of John A. Andrew, Governor of Massachusetts for a Day of Special Humiliation and Prayer in Commemoration of the Death of Abraham Lincoln. Large folio. Boston, May 5, 1865.

Broken in the folds.

94. BROADSIDE. IN MEMORIAM. Good Friday. Passion Week. MDCCCLXV. "O! Weep for Freedom's Martyr! Weep, yet Nations!" &C. 7 Stanzas, by A. J. H. Duganne, printed on black ground and surrounded by pictorial arch, presenting the assassination, etc. 4to, cardboard. No place, (1865).

95. BROADSIDES. THE NATION'S EXULTATION TURNED TO MOURNING. Poem of 12 stanzas; "The Weldon Raid," by L. T. Schultz; "A Singular Dream"; The Party of Freedom and its Candidates, and 2 others, 6 pieces.

An interesting and historically valuable collection.

96. BROADSIDE. "COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. By His Excellency John A. Andrew. Governor: A Proclamation for a Day of Special Humiliation and Prayer . . . for the lamented Death of Abraham Lincoln." Boston, May 5, 1865, large folio. Size, 28 by 20 inches.

97. BROADSIDE. Proclamation ordering the Marriage of Blacks and Whites. 1p., folio. No place, no date. "It is hereby ordered that on and after this date, November 1st, 1867, the inhabitants of this country shall obey the new law sanctioning the marriage of blacks and whites. (signed) General E. C. Candy." A curious miscegenation broadside.

Lots 98 to 171

Compose the Leland Collection of Rare Lincoln Prints, Caricatures, Cartoons, Portraits, etc.

98. The Blockade on the "Connecticut Plan."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1862.

Cartoon of the blockade runner "Nashville" Escaping from the Slow Northern Navy Tubs, "Cambridge" and "Gemsbok." Peters 1614.

99. Breaking that "Backbone."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: (1862.)

Halleck, McClellan and Stanton trying to break the back of the monster, Rebellion. Lincoln waiting to use the axe, Emancipation Proclamation, which, he says, is "the only thing that will fetch him."

Very rare. Peters 1617.

100. The Capture of An Unprotected Female, or the Close up of the Rebellion.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1865.

Depicting the capture of Jefferson Davis. Peters 1618.

101. Caving In, or a Rebel "Deeply Humiliated."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1862.

Prize fight cartoon of Lincoln and Jefferson Davis in fighting togs. Davis suffers blows marked Fort Donelson, Mill Spring, Fort Henry, etc. Peters 1620.

102. The Chicago Platform and Candidate.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

Janus faced McClellan, on platform upheld by the Devil, Jefferson Davis, Vallandigham and Fernando Wood, is being denied the soldier vote. Peters 1621.

103. A Disloyal British "Subject."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1861.

Cartoon concerning Irish Enlistments in the Northern Armies and Britain's policy of neutrality. Peters 1627.

104. The Dis-United States. Or the Southern Confederacy.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York, 1860.

Very early cartoon showing the Governors of the first six Confederate States in Council. Peters 1629.

Anti-Lincoln cartoon showing Lincoln on a rail dancing to Horace Greeley's tune. Peters 1640.

105. The Great Exhibition of 1860.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

106. The Great Match at Baltimore, Between the "Illinois Bantam," and the "Old Cock" of the White House.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Cock fight cartoon in which Stephen A. Douglas is victor over President Buchanan at the Democratic Convention at Baltimore. Peters 1641.

107. The Gunboat Candidate at the Battle of Malvern Hill.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

McClellan in the Saddle viewing the battle from the spanker boom of a gunboat. Peters 1643.

108. The Hand-Writing on the Wall, or the Modern Belshazzar.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1862.

Cartoon of Jefferson Davis and the Confederate Congress, startled by the appearance of writing on the wall: "The Union Forever. The Day is Dawning." Etc.

Very rare. Peters 1644.

109. An Heir to the Throne, or the next Republican Candidate.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Anti-Lincoln cartoon showing Lincoln, Horace Greeley and the young negro, William Henry Johnson, a farm boy discovered by Barnum and exhibited by him as "Zip, the Wild Boy," and "What is it?" Peters 1645.

110. "The Impending Crisis"—or Caught in the Act.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Cartoon of Greeley pushing Seward off the pier and caught in the act of the other New York newspapers. Peters 1649.

111. "The Irrespressible Conflict." Or the Republican Barge in Danger.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

The Republicans, breakers ahead, throw Seward overboard. Lincoln is steering—Greeley is throwing out Seward, the regular pilot. Peters 1650.

112. The Last Ditch of the Chivalry, or a President in Petticoats.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1865.

Cartoon of the flight of Jefferson Davis. Peters 1654.

113. Letting the Cat out of the Bag!!

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860

Charles Sumner letting the cat, Spirit of Discord, out of the Republican bag; Lincoln trying to drive her back with his rail. Peters 1656.

114. The National Game. Three "Outs" and One Run. Abraham Winning the Ball.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Base ball cartoon showing Lincoln winning over the three Democratic candidates. Peters 1660.

115. The New "Confederate Cruiser."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1872.

Horace Greeley campaign cartoon. Peters 1661.

116. A Nice Family Party.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1872.

General Grant with the Government cake surrounded by politicians clamoring "Let us have a piece." Peters 1663.

117. "The Nigger" in the Woodpile.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Anti Lincoln cartoon of 1860, showing Lincoln sitting on pile of rails beneath which is seen a negro. Horace Greeley tells the voters they have no connection with the Abolition Party. Peters 1664.

118. The Old Bull Dog on the Right Track.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

1864 Campaign cartoon of McClellan advising Lincoln to call off General Grant from his attempt to take Richmond. Peters 1665.

119. Political "Blondins" crossing Salt River.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Anti-Lincoln cartoon, showing Bell and Everett safely crossing on the bridge of the Constitution while the other Democrats and Lincoln are about to fall. Peters 1669.

120. The Political Gymnasium.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Interesting cartoon of the several candidates of the Campaign of 1860. Peters 1670.

121. The Political "Siamese" Twins. The Offspring of Chicago Miscegenation.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

The Chicago Democratic Convention Candidates McClellan and Pendleton are shown as Siamese twins. Peters 1671.

122. Progressive Democracy Prospect of a Smash Up.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

The very interesting grade crossing cartoon showing the Lincoln and Hamlin engine about to crash into the Democratic wagon to opposite ends of which are hitched Douglas and Johnson and Breckenridge and Lane. Peters 1672.

123. Reunion of the Secesh-Democratic Plan.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1862.

Cartoon of the Peace Democrats' plan to meet Southern terms to end the war. Very rare. Peters 1676.

124. Running the Machine.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

Cartoon of Lincoln and his Cabinet in session, Chase turning out millions of greenbacks.

Very rare and interesting anti-Lincoln 1864 campaign cartoon. Peters 1679.

125. The "Secession Movement."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1861.

The head-long race of the Southern States after the butterfly of Secession, nearing the edge of the cliff above the breakers. Peters 1680.

126. South Carolina's "Ultimatum."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1861

Fort Sumter cartoon, with caricatures of President Buchanan and Governor Pickens. Peters 1683.

127. Stephen Finding "His Mother."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Columbia whipping Stephen A. Douglas, in the Campaign of 1860. Peters 1685.

128. Storming the Castle, "Old Abe" on Guard.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Cartoon of the two Democratic tickets trying to get into the White House. Lincoln, the Wide Awake watchman, comes up with his rail to chase them away. Peters 1686.

129. "Taking the Stump" or Stephen in Search of his Mother.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

One of the best Campaign of 1860 cartoons showing Stephen A. Douglas with a peg leg soliciting support, while Lincoln complacently looks on. Peters 1687.

130. * * * * Another, with names written in in pencil.

131. The True Issue, or "That's What's the Matter."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

Rare anti-Lincoln cartoon of the Campaign of 1864 showing McClellan trying to hold Lincoln and Jefferson Davis together, to avoid tearing apart the map of the United States. Peters 1688.

132. The True Peace Commissioners.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

Cartoon showing Grant, Sheridan, Lee, Davis, Farragut and Sherman. In a loop, Farragut says "Armistice! and Suspension of hostilities!—Tell that to the Marines."—a very early use of that expression. Peters 1689.

133. "Uncle Sam" Making New Arrangements.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1860.

Lincoln winning the Presidency over the three Democratic candidates.. Peters 1690.

134. "Your Plan and Mine."

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1864.

McClellan's plan of offering the olive branch contrasted with Lincoln's plan of bayonetting the South. Very rare. Peters 1693.

135. The Military Ring.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1872.

General Grant receiving gifts of liquor, cigars, etc. Very rare. Not in Peters.

136. Selling Out Cheap!

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1868.

The Devil advising Senator Charles Sumner of Massachusetts. Very rare. Not in Peters.

137. The Ghost. A New Spectral illusion, lately in Europe, and now causing a great commotion in America.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1863.

France and England appear frightened at the Spirit of Liberty, arising from an American battlefield. Extremely rare. Not in Peters.

138. A Startling Announcement.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1862.

Cartoon of Jefferson Davis, abed, receiving the news of the capture of Fort Donelson. Very rare. Not in Peters.

139. A Cure for Republican Lock-Jaw.

Lithograph of Ben. J. Day, New York: 1861.

Ramming the Crittenden Compromise down Lincoln's Throat.

140. The "If" Candidate for the Presidency.

Lithograph of J. Gibson, New York.

*Campaign of 1864 cartoon, showing McClellan as the dog which might have caught the fox, if * * **

141. The Fox without a Tail.

Lithograph of J. L. Magee, Philadelphia: 1861.

Cartoon of the proceedings of Secession comparing them with the fox in the fable.

142. Gallant Capture of a Lady's Wardrobe by the Brave Troops of Florida.

Lithograph of J. M. Magee, Philadelphia: 1861.

Cartoon on the Secession of Florida.

143. A Little Game of Bagatelle, between Old Abe the Rail Splitter and Little Mac the Gunboat General.

Lithograph of J. L. Magee, Philadelphia.

Campaign of 1864 cartoon, Lincoln winning from McClellan.

This print contains the extremely rare portrait of General Grant smoking a pipe.

144. 1832. Democracy. 1864.

Lithograph of L. Prang, Boston: 1864.

Campaign of 1864 cartoon, comparing General Jackson's bold tactics against Calhoun with the cringing attitude of McClellan toward the Confederacy.

145. Little Mac, in his Great Two Horse Act, in the Presidential of 1864.

Lithograph of T. W. Strong, New York.

Campaign of 1864 cartoon, McClellan trying to ride two horses, Peace and War. Caricature of Lincoln in background.

146. Our National Bird as it Appeared when handed to James Buchanan, March 4, 1857. The Identical Bird as it Appeared A. D. 1861.

Lithograph of T. W. Strong, New York: 1861.

Very rare cartoon showing the American Eagle crippled by Anarchy and Secession.

147. Strong's Dime Caricatures.—No. 1. Domestic Troubles.

Lithograph of T. W. Strong, New York: 1861.

The Union hen regrets the departure of the Secession ducklings into Salt River, above which the hawk Anarchy soars.

148. Strong's Dime Caricatures.—No. 2. Little Bo-Peep and her Foolish Sheep.

Lithograph of T. W. Strong, New York: 1861.

The black Secession sheep leave the Union fold. The sheep dog (President Buchanan) is afraid to bring them back.

149. Strong's Dime Caricatures.—No. 3. South Carolina Topsey in a Fix.

Lithograph of T. W. Strong, New York: 1861.

Columbia showing Topsey, the American flag, with several stars cut out and promises to hand the matter to Uncle Abe, the new overseer.

150. Strong's Dime Caricatures.—No. 4. "The Schoolmaster Abroad" at Last.

Lithograph of T. W. Strong, New York: 1861.

Lincoln, the Schoolmaster, inviting the boys to come out of the mud hole of Secession.

151. Heads of the Democracy.

No lithographer's imprint.

1864 Campaign cartoon showing Block-head, Sore-head, Copper-head, etc.

152. Lincoln cartoon, without title or lithographer's imprint, showing Lincoln the bartender mixing Victory and Defeat with Bunkum, Bosh and Brag.

153. The "Rail Splitter" at Work repairing the Union.

No lithographer's imprint. Signature of "G. E. Baker, del." in the plate.

1864 Campaign cartoon showing Lincoln with his rail and Andrew Johnson with his tailor's shears, needle, thread, and measuring stick repairing the map of the United States.

Very rare.

154. Southern "Volunteers."

No lithographer's imprint.

Cartoon of forcible methods of securing recruits—1861.

155. Jeff Davis, on his own Platform, or the last "Act of Secession."

No lithographer's imprint.

1861 cartoon of Davis, Toombs, Beauregard, Stevens, and Pickens about to be hanged.

156. The Voluntary Manner in Which Some of the Southern Volunteers Enlist.

No lithographer's imprint. Signature in plate of Thos. Worth, Currier and Ive's famous comic artist.

Poking fun at the Strenuous Efforts of the Confederacy to secure recruits in Missouri in 1861.

157. Distinguished Militia Gen'l During An Action.

No lithographer's imprint.

A gibe at the inept Northern commanders in the early part of the Civil War.

158. The Battle of Booneville, or the Great Missouri "Lyon" Hunt.

No lithographer's imprint.

Cartoon of General Nathaniel Lyon putting the Confederates to flight.

Very rare.

159. John Bull Makes a Discovery.

No lithographer's imprint.

1861 War cartoon, suggesting England's greater interest in cotton than abolition of negro slavery.

Very rare.

160. The Old General Ready for a "Movement."

No lithographer's imprint.

*1861 War cartoon showing General Scott about to snare Jefferson Davis.
Very rare.*

161. The Way to Fix 'Em.

No lithographer's imprint.

*Fort Sumter (1861) cartoon showing Lincoln roasting Colonel Chestnut over the ruins of the Fort.
Very rare.*

162. The Chicago Platform.

No lithographer's imprint.

Campaign of 1864 cartoon, showing Jefferson Davis but partly hidden beneath the Chicago Democratic Platform.

163. President Jefferson Davis. Arriving at the Field of Battle at Bull's Run.

Lithograph of P. Boerg: 1861.

Equestrian portrait.

164. J. Wilkes Booth.

Lithograph of Bufford, Boston: 1865.

Half length portrait.

165. The Body of the Martyr President, Abraham Lincoln. Lying in State at the City Hall, N. Y., April 24th and 25th, 1865.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1865.

Peters 1894.

166. The Surrender of Gen'l Joe Johnston Near Greensboro, N. C., April 26th, 1865.

Lithograph of Currier and Ives, New York: 1865.

Peters 848.

167. Last Moments of President Lincoln. Washington, D. C. April 15th, 1865.

Death bed scene.

168. The Martyr of Liberty.

No lithographer's imprint.

The shooting of Lincoln by Booth.

169. Assassination of President Lincoln. At Ford's Theatre, Washington, D. C., April 14th, 1865.

No lithographer's imprint.

Showing Booth escaping from the President's box.

170. Memento Mori.

Wood cut, bust portrait of Lincoln, with dates of birth and death and a quotation beneath. Small folio.

171. Abraham Lincoln, Sixteenth President of the United States. Colored engraving of Ensign, Bridgman and Fanning, New York: 1861.

Standing three-quarters length portrait.

END OF TITLE

END

TITL

D OF

ITLE